Manaus city hosts international event security

Manaus hosted between November 19 and 22 the International Conference on Security for Major Events - CIS Manaus, held at Tropical Hotel and Resort, with a focus on FIFA 2014 World Cup. Congress joined three major events: the V National Symposium of Military Equipment Ordnance Officers, the III Seminar of Police Shooting Instructors and the I Security and Technology Workshop, through lectures and debates. Also the event provided an exhibition of products and solutions, along with technical lectures and practical demonstrations of equipment in the firing range. The CIS Manaus objective was to provide a discussion about the use of weapons, techniques, technologies and equipment available on the market that can be integrated to provide the best performance of Public and Private Security activities and contribute to the integration between different organizations, which should work in harmony to provide the best service to the public and to the attendants of major events. Military police officers of all Brazil states, Amazonas Federal and Civil police officers, private security professionals attended the event, as well as visitors from South Africa, Italy, USA, Israel, Spain and England, who presented their experiences and models of security because they have already worked with major events. Igor Pipolo, director at Nucleo, Ricardo Coelho and Roberto Costa, associate consultants, worked in the Congress as speakers and entertainers. Picture: Paulo Roberto Vital, State of Amazonas Secretary of Public Security, Ricardo Coelho, Roberto Costa and Igor Pipolo.

Deggy Seminar

The Deggy Seminar - Control and Operating Performance, took place in Florianopolis and Blumenau cities between November 09 and 10. With the presence of businessmen, managers and operating coordinators of security companies in the state, the event was, according to the testimony of the attendants, a success. Invited by Fernando So, director of Deggy, Joao Jaouiche, associate consultant at Nucleo, was one of the speakers, which with focus on management has demonstrated how important is the control of operational actions for continuous performance improvement of service companies, as well as the tools to measure the quality of the services provided. "You can only manage what you can measure, and for that, we need to define what you want and how to exercise that control", commented Jaouiche.

ABSEG Social Event

The Brazilian Association of Security Professionals - ABSEG closes another year celebrating its achievements. The socializing event took place November 27, at Bar Brahma of Campo de Marte, in Sao Paulo city, with the presence of the board, members, friends and guests. During the event, Ricardo Tadeu, president of ABSEG, thanked and honored the professionals Ricardo Coelho, Igor Pipolo, Tatiana Diniz, Marcos Nascimento and Tarcisio Neves with a recognition plaque for their dedication and work that always led the entity. In his speech, the president emphasized his joy in assuming the association management and the importance of active participation of members and each board director to support the growth and strengthening.

Movie Suggestion

Name: "Tower Heist"
Country: USA

Direction: Brett Ratner
Year: 2011
Comedy, Action/105 min.

Commented Synopsis: Josh Kovacs (Ben Stiller) was an exemplary employee of one of the most exciting buildings in New York, known as The Tower. There, he is a sort of leader of a "more or less" qualified team, such as Lester (Stephen Henderson), Cole Howard (Casey Affleck), Odessa (Gabourey Sidibe) and Rick (Michael Pena), among others. Everyone's life is turned upside down when Arthur Shaw (Alan Alda), a billionaire occupant of the building top apartment, is arrested by the FBI for committing a fraud, transforming the employees' pension fund into ashes. Willing to recover the money, Josh invites a neighbor (Eddie Murphy) to help them to figure out where this money went and how to pick it back and do justice, considering that neither the FBI knows fortune is. "The funny movie has its best moments during the training organized by Murphy on the art of stealing". Marcela Floriano
