Security Show 2013

Once again, the companies Seventh and Segware, which develop image monitoring systems and alarm systems, respectively, together with Alarm System, a distributor of security products, successfully arranged the Security Show. The event 5th edition took place between March 5 and 6 at Infinity Blue Hotel, in Balneario Camboriu city. Security Show is an event that provides the exchange of experiences, best practices, partnerships and business arrangements in the security and technology areas in both public and private sectors. Having accepted Mr. Luiz Bonatti invitation, CEO at Segware, the brothers and partners at Nucleo, Igor Pipolo and Michel Pipolo, opened the event with the lecture "Security, from strategic to operational". The Pipolo brothers presented dynamically, illustratively and with real cases four possible scenarios - chaos, crises, surprises and success - for a security system and emphasized that an effective security system must have a harmonic relation between strategic and operational issues.

Happened

Velours Seminar

Edison Fontes, partner at Nucleo and director at the Information Security Committee of the Brazilian Association of Security Professionals (ABSEG), was present at the seminar "How to protect intangible patrimony of companies in Brazil", arranged by Velours International in partnership with France-Brazil Chamber of Commerce (FBCC), in Sao Paulo city, on March 6. At the occasion, Mr. Laurent Serafini, Director at Velours, and Mr. Marcio Cots, an attorney specialized in digital laws. The seminar objective was to bring an approach to the daily life in a company e what it took to reach development considering new regulations and international realities. "The event brought a current issue and the speakers were able to present better ways for the organizations protection" said Fontes.

CNASI RJ 2013

The 16th edition of CNASI Congress - Rio de Janeiro IT Audit, Information Security and Governance, took place on March 25 and 26 and consisted of lectures and mini-courses. Edison Fontes was among a selected group of speakers at CNASI, and ministered the lecture "How to develop the Information Security Policy". Fontes presented the difficulties faced by organizations in the development of regulations for information security, indicated practical solutions, considering the context of information security and exhibited a minimum standard for a security policy, based on an academic survey conducted during his Master's Degree program.

Movie Suggestion

Name: "Training Day"
Country: USA, Australia
Direction: Antoine Fuqua
Year: 2001
Police, Suspense, 122 min.

Commented Synopsis: The dream of Jake Hoyt (Ethan Hawke), a young police officer in Los Angeles, was joining the team of local police narcotics department. But when he finally manages to get a position of training officer, he becomes partner of Alonzo Harris (Denzel Washington), a veteran and corrupt cop. In his first day in duty the young officer is exposed to all kinds of corruption, is obliged to use crack and is accused for murder. All these events are orchestrated by Alonzo order to cover up a mistake made by him with the Russian mafia, which may cause his death if he doesn't get a large amount of money until midnight. "Despite being an old movie, it can be considered a classic! It is strong, tense and intriguing; with a good story that discusses police corruption and involvement of public officials with crime". Marcela Floriano
